The News.

The Democrats in the Senate yesterday nominated GEO. W. Bowman, of the Constitution for Printer.

The prospect of having the President's message is now "indefinitely prolonged," as there will be no quorum during Holiday

Mr. FARNSWORTH, (M. C. from lilinois.) expressed himself with much spirit on "Union splitting" and "Union saving." The news via the Overland Route, is interesting. New gold deposits are reported as discovered in Carson Valley. The telegraph also announces a steamer aground in the Mississippi ten miles above St. Louis. The passengers are without provisions, and with a fair prospect of passing a very isolated if not merry Christmas.

Judge Larrabee a K. N. Candidate for Speaker The N. Y. Express, the most intolerant Know-Nothing paper published in the Union. publishes a letter from its regular Washington correspondent, from which we clip the following significant passage:

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Express.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Express.

The Hon, C. H. Larrabee, of Wisconsin, a conservative Democrat, whom Americans in his district patrioticulty, in order to defeat the Expublican candidate, contributed to deed, so ably and elequently defined his position as a national union man upon the floor of the House on Saturday as to have even such favor as has led to his being spoken of in intential quarters as the man upon whom may be concentrated the entire Democratic vote for the Speakership. That vote, all told (Lecompton and Anti-Lecompton), is 101. Should it combine, as proposed, upon Mr. Larrabee, he would want but IS votes to elect him, with a full House. The national oppositionists, numbering 24, would find their position emborrassing, were they, in such a state of the case to stand out and resist an Anti-Republican organization which it would be in their power to accompileb,—with six votes to space.

The Express is indisputable Know-Nothing authority and its revelations, as to the K. N. support which Mr. LARRABUE received for Congress, will be especially interesting to the electors of the Third District We doubt, however, whether the K. N. nomination will secure the Speakership for the aspiring Judge.

WE HAVE YET to beer our Democratic journals utter the first word of rebute against those Southern men who have stood up day after day, even beneath the roof of the Capitol, and uttered their threats of dis-union.—Providence Journal,

It is just so here. Not a word has been or will be uttered by the Democratic journals against these Southern Disunionists. Doughfaces never dare utter a word against the impudent threats and heresies of the South. They content themselves with bearing witness against their neighbors.

THE SOUTHERN MEDICAL STUDENTS Who withdrew from the Philadelphia Medical Schools, acted upon the principle of "biting off one's own nose to spite one's face." The Philadelphia Medical Schools are unquestionably the best in the United States, and if these students see fit to sacrifice superior advantages and remove the light of their professional countenances to Southern schools, where is the lose? There will be fewer brickbats thrown in Philadelphia the next time an anti-Slavery meeting is held.

Another Tragedy in Cleveland .- Cleveland seems to have taken a lesson from Detroit; we read of another tragedy there. A man by the name of D. E. ELIUM, deliberately hung himself to a door knob. The act is said to have been caused by religious fanaticism.

REV. W. A. BARTLETT'S STYLE .- A Writer in Life Illustrated passes a highfalutin column of eulogium at Mr. BARTLETT and gives us the following excerpts as gems of his discourse on music:

"Man is the only lyre ever flung out of heaven, capable of reproducing its harmo-"The stars which seem piled up to the very frontiers of heaven are the golden steps and the quivering keys in the great organ of

"With some people, the devil and the fiddle are synonymous."
"When some choirs are singing, you can hardly tell whether they are psalm or filing a saw."
"There is not a rill in creation that Satan won't put his cloven hoof into, and roil."
"The perfume of flowers is the broath of angels."

BREAKING THROUGH THE ICE !-- MAN BREARING THROUGH THE ICE!—MAN DROWNED AND TEAM LOST!—Just as we were going to press last night, we had the following particulars from Mr. Volimer, of the Mondell House: Night before last as Charley Baldwin, formerly of this place, but now of the McGregor Livery Stable, in company with Mr. L. E. Johnson, landlord of the Prairie Hotel, and another man whose large way have any lawrend recommend. name we have not learned, were returning name we have not learned, were returning to Prairie du Chien from Clayton, Iowa, in a two-horse cutter on the ice, they suddenly broke through when within four or five miles of town; and Mr. Johnson, being bandled up well, was thrown out of the cutter sideways and was carried away under the ice by the current. Baldwin and his other corporation just hed time to make a track. companion just had time to make a leap for the strong ice, when the horses and cutter also went under and were carried away. Up to last night neither the body of Mr. Johnson nor the team had been found, although son nor the team had been found, although diligent search was made all through yesterday. Mr. Johnson was a new comer, from Madison, having very recently leased the Granite Hotel in lower town.—Prairie du Chie Leader 222

FUNEBAL OF MB. J. B. CAMPAU.-The funeral of Mr. J. B. Campau was largely at-tended yesterday afternoon at his late resithe remains were followed to the grave by a very extensive procession. An examination was made on the previous eveexamination was made on the previous evening by the attending physicians, that no doubts might be left as to the probable causes of his death. The funeral services were very solemn and impressive.—Defroit Press, 22d.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that the team of Mr. John Keyes, of Empire, while on his way to this city on Friday last, became numanageable, and threw Mr. Keyes from the load, causing his death nearly or onto peters in the content of th quite instantly it is supposed, as he was cuite gone when found. It is a sad bereavement to his family and neighbors.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth, SUICIDE.—Dr. Charles Merry, a dentist in St. Louis, committed suicide on Saturday morning last, a short distance from that city, morning last, a short distance from that city, by first entting his throat and then throwing his bleeding body before a train of twenty-four cars on the Iron Mountain Railroad, all of which passed over him.

THE FAILURE of the recent diaboli cal plot to destroy the steamship Milwaukee has thrown Chicago into another paroxysm of rage against the Milwaukee and Grand Raven steamship line. When it was announced that the Milwaukes was on the beach at Grand Haven and would probably go to pieces, our generous neighbors just then made the discovery that she was a "fine vessel, worthy of a better fate," but since the Milwaukee has been got off with out any serious injury, in their estimation she has dwindled into an insignificant "steamboat," and the Lake Ferry is a great humbug. The Times-one of whose editors, by the by, not long since crossed the lake on one of the Ferry steamers, and, be it said to his credit, had the fairness to tell the truth about the route-discourses on the subject in the following amiable straiu :

THE GRAND HAVEN FURRY .-- We are con-THE GRAND HAVEN FURRY.—We are constantly amused at the coolness with which the route across Lake Michigan from Grand Haven to Milwaukee is dubbed with the pseudouyn "ferry." Eighty miles or thereabouts of the roughtest water journey in the world.—a journey to accomplish which it was found necessary to construct "Ocean steamers" of unusual build and strength—a journey which disabled both of those Ocean steamers before they had hardly soaked a plank, and finally wrecked one almost irplank, and finally wrecked one almost in-revocably, and laid both in port ere they had achieved the age of a quarter of a year. Ferry indeed! With such evidence before our eyes of the length and extent of the diffiour eyes of the length and extent of the dim-culties to be encountered, the journey should be rather called the maelstrom. To delude the public by calling Lake Michigan a ferry is to deserve all the disasters with which the originators of that title have been visited. Comment is unnecessary.

THE MASONIC FESTIVAL takes place on TUESDAY evening,27th inst., at the new and beautiful temple on West Water street. The furnishing of the halls has progressed with astonishing rapidity under the able supervision of Mr. SEAMAN. We have before spoken of the admirable arrangement of these rooms and their splendid decorations, since we have seen them with the furniture iuand the drapery and emblematical ornamentation complete, our admiration has increased. Supper will be served in the spacious dining room above the hall, and carriages furnished gratis to all who hold tickets. It may be well to state that there are two halls here of similar dimensions, one of which will be used for dancing and the other as a drawing room. thus affording every accommodation for those who may not wish to engage in the dance .--There is also a spacious gallery in the dancing hall where a comprehensive view of all on the floor can be obtained. This festival will undoubtedly be the creme de la creme. and those who have no tickets had better begin to solicit the influence of their triends. A HINT TO OUR MERCHANTS .- The Sparts Heraid, one of the best of our State exchanges, and published in one of the most thriving villages and fertite regions of our State. copies the article from the Sentinel, contrasting the gain on the wheat and pork trade, during the current year, at Milwaukee, with the loss at Chicago, and adds the following comment:

The above comparison speaks loudly in favor of our commercial emporium and its future. Its central location, facilities and well established enterprise, stability and liberality of its business men, will ever secure to Milwaukee the leading trade and commerce of the great West.

Her merchants and business men generally, need but to advertise their business liberally in the local papers of the west—a measure, by the way, they have been rathorstringent on heretofore—to greatly extend their present trade, and secure a permanent continuance of it.

Marchants and others darkons of advants. Merchants and others, desirous of advertising their wares in the North-western part of our State, will find the Sparta Herald a most advantageous medium.

CHRISTMAS EVE.—Although the festival of Christmas is not to be celebrated until Monday, to-night will be Christmas Eve; and we can think of nothing that the many youthful readers of the Sentinel will like better to see in our columns this morning than Professor Moore's "Visit from Santa Claus;" familiar as "household words" to all of us, and yet ever welcome and appropriate at this genial season. We trust that SAINT NICK will remember all his young friends in his round of visits through Milwaukee, to-night, and as sleighing is excellent, his "eight tiny reindeers" will carry him along rapidly. Of course, in his case, the Police will not insist upon his "going slow" through the city streets. "Let him slide."

SHIPPING HOUS TO NEW YORK .- Yesterday we saw several hundred dressed hogs on the dock of the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway, at this office directed to SAWYER, WALLACE & Co., New York. The propeller Cayahoga, on her last trip to Grand Haven, took over 480 hogs for the same destination, and we understand that at the Church of the Redeemer, on "Christhere are parties in the city buying hogs for New York and Boston houses, to be shipped by Railway.

LARGE Hogs .-- We have had occasion several times recently to speak of large hogs, but yesterday we saw three raised by Thomas SALTER, of Oconomowoc, which rather surpass any others that have come to market this season. They averaged over four hundred pounds each; but it was more in condition then in size that they excelled. They were sold by John Miles to Lauton & Plankin-TON for $6,00 per cwt.

DEATH OF A FIREMAN. - FREDERICK BENSLEE, Ex-Foreman of Germania Engine Co. No. 7, and for some time a member of the The steamer Diligent, from Alton, is aground on a chain, some ten miles above here. Sixty to eighty persons were on board without provisions. The ice prevent is communicating with the shore. Efforts are being made to prevent them from starvation.

Police department, died in this city, yesterday will be served to the guests. John G. Cook.

CARSLESS DRIVING.—A little girl was knocked down by a horse and sleigh yester-row, Sunday afternoon, at half past one day, in front of the Sentinet office. Fortunction.

New Books at the Young Men's Association is following up the plan adopted some while since of adding the new publications from time to time to the Library. It is the seen by advertisement that it is in receipt of the recently completed work of Thackeray's—"The Virginians"—who is keeping almost even pace with Dickers in papular regard, though working a very different vein;—two late works of Bayabo Taylor who is now read and listened to as a matter of course whenever he publishes or lectures;—two new works from those olever novelists Miss Mulich and Charles Reade;—something for the admirers of forersic talent in the "Reminiscences of Rufus Charles;—some refreshing details of University life in the "adventures of Mr."

PREFARED Glue.—Litt'e conveniences for general family use are often of more value than what are called "great inventions."—

There is no house-keeper that has not been often annoyed by squeaky, rickety chairs, which have become so by the joints where they are put together becoming shrunken and loose, and so long as furniture is left in this condition, there is constant danger of a general smash-up. And again such accidents as breakage of furniture do occasionally occur "in the best regulated families." To remedy the annoyance and perplexity occasioned by these troubles, we keep in the house a small quantity of Prepared Glue, which can be applied to the affected parts by any person of ordinary skill, with much less trouble than sending the article to a cabinet-maker, to say nothing of the English and American steamers.—The single rate of letters and samples of merchange for the English and American steamers.—The single rate of letters and samples of merchange for the English and American steamers.—The single rate of letters and samples of merchange for the English and American steamers.—The single rate of letters and samples of merchange for the English and American steamers.—The single rate of letters and samples of merchange for the English and American steamers.—The single rate of letters and samp New Books AT THE Young Men's As-University life in the "adventures of Mr. inet of "little conveniences," we fully of cur in the sentiment of the label.—N.

SAUBATH SCHOOL FESTIVAL .- The annual Festival of the Third Ward Episcopal Mission Sabbath School took place on Thursday evening at Sivyer's Hall. There was a large attendance of both scholars and friends of the Mission. About five o'clock an abundant repast was served up in the dining room connected with the hall, to which ample justics was done. Music and singing followed. after which the contents of a mammoth Christmas tree were distributed among the children. Next in order came presentations. Rev. Mr. SPAULDING, on behalf of the scholars, presented a handsome silver watch to Mr. RICHARD RASTALL, the efficient teacher of music connected with the school, accompany ing the same with a few appropriate remarks Two volumes of books were also presented to the ratiring paster of the Mission, Rev. H. W. SPAULDING, by the children connected with the school, and a handsome piece of plate to Mr. Jas. Rastall, by one of his scholars. The festivities were kept up till midnight, when all dispersed with a hearty wish for the continued success of the school

FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING,-Yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock, a fire broke out in blacksmith shop occupied by Mr. FRANK-ENHORN, at the upper end of East Water St. The building was entirely consumed, together with the contents. The loss will not exceed 3500. It is believed that the fire was the work of an incendiary. During the burning of the building the nmates—a number of women and children were huddled upon the sidewalk, scantily which refused to allow the unfortunate women to enter. Mr. BECK, Chief of Police, however, took the responsibility of demanding shelter for the people, and succeded in seeing them temporarily housed.

PRIZE BEEF FOR THE HOLIDAYS. -That rize ox, from the farm of Mr.~E.~W.~Edgerron, at Summit, will be served up by CRUM-MEY, at his market on Milwaukee street, just north of the Post-Office, during the Holiday week. It is probably the finest beef ever offered for sale in this State. Epicures and others should go and take a look at it, and leave their orders for a nice cut.

SENTENTIOUS WISDOM .- On the inside of last night's Wisconsin, the editor remarks sagely: "It requires but little foresight to perceive that Christmas is coming." On the outside of the same sheet the other editor. remarks that "Messrs. Prows & Hill are gradually winning their way into the public stomach!"

Ladius' Fair .- On Monday evening the Society of the Welch Congregational Church will give an entertainment at Sivyer's Hall, on Main street, near Huron, cousisting of music by the noted Welch choir from Raine, supper, addresses and a Ladies' Fair. The affair is in good hands and will be an interesting and profitable evening.

Congressional Proceedings.

Washington, Dec. 23—9 P. M.
House.—Mr. Farnsworth being entitled to the foor, said he was willing to give way for a motion to vote. Mr. Ruffin and other democratic members objected, insisting on Mr. Farnsworth either proceeding with his remarks, or abandoning the floor altogether. Mr. F. said he made the proposition in good faith. He did not desire to place any impediment in the way of organizing. He and his republican friends had been here nearly three weeks, desiring and auxious to vote for a speaker. They had no disposition to discuss the question, but would wait till an organiza-

speaker. They had no disposition to discuss the question, but would wait till an organization was effected. He spoke for himself and did not want the republican party held responsible for his utterance.

He said they had been met here with speeches and resolutions in regard to Helper's pamphlet and a speech of Gov. Seward.—These things were thrust into their faces, with a threatened dissolution of the Union on their account, and it was even threatened here that if a Republican Speaker is cheeted, the Union shall be severed instanter.

He proceeded to read from the Richmond

the Union shall be severed instanter.

He proceeded to read from the Richmond Enquirer (a leading democratic paper, edited by Ritchie, Pryor & Dunncoath) of June '57, and May and June '56, to show that that journal had uttered "irrepressible conflict" doctrines, and pronounced free society a failure, and had said that a war between the two systems will vice providing, until the two systems will rage everywhere, until one conquers and the other is exterminated. Senator Seward, he said, never uttered "irrepressible conflict" doctrines so strong as that. Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, had expressed similar sentiments in regard He denied the authority of any member him responsible for endorsing Helntals in its favor, and adding: the writer ad-vocates going into Africa and seizing and de-luding the natives, to gain their consent to with the same propriety charge it on the be shipped to this country by the middle Democratic party.

Logan read an account of a Republican here, to induce them to live in perpetual bondage. The writer admits it would be an infraction and violation on the laws of the U.S., but justifies it by the necessities of the case, and says that the Union can be preserved only by this so-called conservative policy. Is this the sentiment of the Demooratic party?

Mr. Cobb--I deprecate the re-opening of the slave trade. Now you speak out, and say whether you endorse Helper's book. Mr. Farnsworth would like to ask Mr. diles the question, whether he endorsed Mr. Miles replied that he most heartily, atterly, and from the bottom of his heart deprecated any evasion laws. (Applause.) He recognized the higher law of sentiment and honor, which compelled him to obey the Constitution. Mr. F. wanted to know whether he was favor of the re-opening trade by repeal if favor of the re-opening trade by repeat of aws.

M. replied that he was not prepared to say whether he was in favor of re-opening the shve trade in some future time; but not so long as the laws of the land forbid engaging it the traffic. He believed it now useless to decuss the question so long as the South re-mains in confederacy. No man believed that in the present Union the slave trade can be reopened legally, and no one advocates it illegally. He should like to ask Mr. F. whether he was in favor of the repeal of the fugiliar along law. tive slave law.

Mr. F. replied he would answer that ques ion bye-and-bye.

Mr. Reagan remarked that he had come out

Mr. Reagan remarked that he had come out of the canvass on that issue, and was apposed to the re-opening of the slave trade in or out of the Union, and in favor of law, order and justice. Now, do you endorse the doctrines of Helper's book? Answer like a man. (Applause.)

The Clerk checked these disorderly manifectations estations.

Restations.

Mr. Stanton felt it his duty to say for himself and those he represented, that so far as Helper's book advises servile incurrection he utterly abhorred and detested it. There were not as many men out as in the peniten-itentiary of Ohio who would tolerate it for a moment.

Mr. Kellogg expressed his gratification at the turn the discussion had taken; he tho't it could now be said his colleague could proceed with his remarks; he knew his colleague would be framark; he knew his colleague would be frank and plain.

Mr. Bonham said that the act of 1820, which characterized the slave trade as piracy, was a blot on the statute book, and ought to be expunged, but he knew no party in the South which was in favor of having the law of 1819 repealed. With regard to the latter he was not prepared to say it is prepartite. he was not prepared to say it is unconstitu-tional. There is no considerable part of the Southern Democratic party who agitated the can never be done in confederacy. As to whether he was in favor of re-opening the share trade. It trade at some future time he was not prepared to say.

Mr. F.—Does the gentleman endorse the sentiment in the book "Black Diamond," for the revival of the trade by law?

Mr. Bonham—It is impracticable. I do not stand in the attitude of one who endorsed the violation of any existing law.

Mr. F. asked Mr. McRae whether he endorsed this santiment. lorsed this sentiment.

Mr. McRae as an individual, was in favor of the re-opening of the trade; but this was not the position of the democratic party in Mississippi or other southern States. He was moreover for the faithful execution of the TORI SEF aws as they stand against the re-opening of the traffic.

Mr. F. did not think such a design could

Air. C. replied, he never read that book.

Air. Lamar said he always had been opposed to the re-opening of the African Slave trade. He was in the Senate when Seward announced the doctrine which had such startling effect on the South—that as soon as this Administration shall pass away the the Supreme Court, so as its decisions should be against the interests of the South. Saward said he expected, in his lifetime, there would not be the foot of a single slave on the continent, and while he uttered this as his deliberate opinion, his form dilated and his pale face was expressive of bad and malignant passion, and his eyes glowed, as if the first of hell was lingering in his heart.

F., earnestly—God grant that I, too, may see the day when the foot of a slave will not rest on the continent.

Bonham—You'll never see it.

F. said that it would not be a raid.—It was the wish of Washington; it was the doctrine of the men who made this Republic, and of the men who will continue this doctrine of the men who made this Republic; and of the men who will continue this Republic's existence. He did not endorse the raid of John Brown. As to the Fugitive Slave Law, he and his people would not pursue the bleeding negro; he would leave that dirty work for the Democrats. He asked whether any Southern gentleman was willing to turn out and chase a fugitive slave, He understood in that portion of Illinois called Egypt, people catch block men, and instead of advertising them as runaways, advertise for their masters.

of advertising them as runaways, advertise for their masters.

Mr. Logan, who represented Egypt, said any imputation that his constituents would violate the law, was false; it was right that such runaways be arrested, and explained, saying he spoke for a large number of Republicans, that not one of them will step an inch out of his way in pursuit of man, woman or child, for the purpose of capturing and restoring them to elavery. But in saying this he do s not say they would place themselves in resistance to fugitive law. They would pursue such a course as had been suggested superintendence of Licut. Rodman. It is a complete success, weighs over 35 tous, and is called the Floyd. The metal is from the Bloomfield Farmes. Knapp & Wade were the contractors, and they have reason to be proad of their success.

In a constant and they would in resistance to fugitive law. They would be unsue such a course as had been suggested of masterly inactivity. He believed the present fugitive slave law unconstitutional and inhuman some of its provisions; but he would not offer armed resistance to it, nor his party.

Mr. Barksdale...The Constitution provides for the rendition of fugitive slaves to an extent you will not obey, and to that extent you violate your oall to support it.

Mr. Farusworth—You mistake it; it does

Mr. Farnsworth—You mistake it; it does not provide I should render slaves.

Alr. Barksdale—It provides for rendition, and you, as a citizen, are bound to carry it out, and unless you do it you are a traitor. (Applause, especially in the galleries.)

Mr F.—The Constitution has never provided that minorities shall rule. Majorities dissolve this Union. What are you going to do with it? Have you never read Bulwer's novel, "What will he do with it?" Are you going to divide the Mississippi River? if so, how much of it are you going to give us? Aint you going to let our boys float rafis down it? What are you going to do with Yankee Doodle? divide that too? (Excessive laughter.) What part of the Fourth of July dissolved these marble palaees will become habitations for late and rats, and will become stone quarries, where marble will be cheap, You might as well talk about dissolving everlasting hills as to dissolve the Union of these States.

Mr. English sent to the chair the proceedings of a public meeting in Chicago, expressing sympathy for John Brown, to show that Mr. Farusworth's statement of the matter was incorrect.

Mr. Farnsworth—I designed to say, no personal sympathy with the objects Brown had in view. (Cries of read the proceedings.)

DAILY, TRI-WEIKLY & WREKLY

RUFUS KING, EDITOR. BATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 24, 1859

AN IMPORTANT ADMISSION. The South Responsibible for John Brown's Raid.

Ex-President FILLMORE, though not pressent at the Union-Saving meeting in New York, wrote a letter to the assemblage, from which we take the following note-worthy passage:

All must remember that in 1849 and '50, the country was severely agitated on this disturbing question of Stacery. That contest grew out of the acquisition of new territory from Mexico, and a contest between the North and the South as to whether slavery should be tolerated in any part of that Territory. Mixed upwith this was a claim on the part of the slaveholding States, that the provision of the Constitution for the rendition of fugitives from service should be made available, as the law of 1859 on that subject, which depended chelip on State officers for its execution, had become inoperative, because State officers were not obliged to perform that duty.

After a severe struggle, which threatened the integrity of the Union, Congress finally passed laws settling these questions; and the government and the people for a time seemed to acquiesce in that compromize as a final settlement of this exciting question; and it is exceedingly to be repretted that mitatken ambition or the hope of promoting a party friumph should have tempted any one to rate this question again. But in an evil hour dia Pandora's box of Slavery was again opened by what I conceive to be an unjustifiable attempt to fove Slavery into Kansas by a repeat of the Missourl Compronise, and the food of evils now swelling and threatening to overthrow the Constitution, and sweep sway the fundation of the Government itself, and delaye this land with fraternal blood, many all be traced to this unjustraturds of. Whatever might have been the motive, lew facils have ever been so bearies of good, and so fruitful of evil. The context has exasperated the public mad, North and South, and engendered feelings of distrust, and I may say, pate, that I fear It will take years to wear away.

The authority of Mr. Fillmore will not Kusson.

what does he tell them? Why, that the Harper's Ferry raid was the natural and inevitable result of the Border Ruffian invasion of Free Kansas. The South then "sowed the wind" and are now "reaping the whirlwind." The "bloody instructions," which they taught to the Missouri Blue Lodges, have returned "to plague the inventors."

A Month Wasted.

The Democratic Senate has virtually adjourned over until Tuesday, the 3d of January, having been in session one mouth and accomplished precisely—nothing. The House of Representatives, we presume, will follow suit; though the Republicans resist the proposed adjournment, and are anxious to organize and proceed with the business of the session. This, the factious and disorganizing Democratic minority will not permit them to do. They have not yet ventilated quite enough Treason, Disunion and Secession speeches to satisfy the Southern demand. Hence their persistence in "agitation" and their refusal to organize. "It is instructive to remark" that this course of the Democratic minority in the House, meets with the open endorsement, or tacit approval of the Democrafic press North. Their consures are only bestowed upon the Republicans, who have wasted no time in speeches; uttered no disloyal or treasonable sentiments; urged a speedy organization of the House, and steadily voted against all adjournments. Let the People judge between them.

The Senate Committees.

The Democratic majority of the U.S. Senate, after several long and excited caucuses, have finally arranged the Standing Committees for the present Congress, as follows: On Foreign Relations—Messra. Mason, Douglas, Slidell, Polk and Crittenden. On Finance—Messra. Hunter, Pearce, Gwin, Bright and Hamnond. On Commerce-Mesers, Clay, Bigler, Toombs, Cling-

On Commerce of the man and Saulsbury.
On Military Again's—Messes. Davis, Flizpatrick, Johnson of Arkansas, Chestnut and Lane.
On Judicitary—Messes. Bayard, Pugh, Benjamin, o. -a--Mezera, Yulce, Gwin, Rice, Bright and Powell.

On Reculationary Claims—Messrs. Toombs, Critcouldn and Nicholson.

On Claims—Messrs. Iverton, Mallory and Brugg.

On the District of Columbia—Messrs. Brown, Mason, Johnson of Tennessee, Yulee and Kennedy.

On Patente—Messrs. Bigler, Thomson, Toombs and Herophill.
On Public Buildings-Messrs, Bright, Davis and

ennedy. On Territories—Messrs. Green, Douglas, Sebastian, On Territories—Messrs, Green, Douglas, Scoasdan, Fitpatrick and Hann. To Audit Contingent Expenses of the Senate—Messrs, Johnson of Tenoessee and Powell. On Printing—Messrs. Fitch and Davis. On Engrowed Rills—Messrs, Lane and Bigler. On Enrolled Bills—Messrs, Lane and Bushbury. On the Library—Messrs, Pearce and Bayard. The Republicans are graciously allowed to one to each of the smaller committees. The arrangement of these Committees is, as usual, intensely sectional and palpably unfair. On all the important Committees the Democrats take five members and allow the Republicans but two, and the Chairmanships of the thirteen leading Committees, are coolly appropriated by the South. Mr. Douglas is again degraded from the Chairmanship of the Committee on Territories, to punish him for his "dangerous" Squatter Sovereignty heresy; but, as yet, not a Northern Democratic paper has uttered one lisp of disapproval. There is no limit to the subserviency of these Doughface organs towards their Southern

That is plain talk. "Union-Saving," it seems, means the endorsement and extension of SLAVERY. This is to be the new plank in the "National Democratic" platform. How do our Wisconsin Democrats relish the proposition? What does the compliant News by the Mayor and Police, as they deserved to be. "Free Speech" will survive all such Democratic attacks upon it.

> THE FEELING AT WASHINGTON-PRO-GRESS OF REPUBLICAN SENTIMENT .-- The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, writing under date of Dec. 19th,

We have noticed that the galleries have almost ceased applauding disunion speeches. Hissinghus taken the place of plaudits. The A "Union-Savino" Spench.—At the New York meeting, on Tuesday last, to "save the Union" and "talk turkey" to the South the great speech of the occasion was made by CHARLES O'CONNER, a leading member of the New York bar, and of the National Democracy. Mr. O'CONNER did not mines the matright and ought to be encouraged and upheld.
We quote from the report of his remarks in the New York Express, a zealous Union-saving sheet:
He would repeat, norro-slavery was not unjust. [Applause.] On the contrary, it was beneficial to both the white and the black man. It was ordinated by matter, and carried with it duties for both complexions which could not be performed. The remainder of the sentence was drowned in the highest tribunal in the country—the United States Suprence Court—had interpreted the Constitution in a manner not to be instaken. Every nation had its own peculiarities in which it differed from all other nations on earth, and the United States Suprence Court—had interpreted the Constitution in a manner not to be instaken. Every nation had its own peculiarities in which it differed from all other nations on earth, and the United States Suprence Court—had interpreted the Constitution in a manner not to be instaken. Every nation had its own peculiarities in which it differed by white men of the Caucassian race. They were not the followers of Joe Smith, not of Mahomet, to permit each citizen to have a dozen wives, and no State would be allowed to exist which differed in this principle of morality from the other States.

There were many other distinctive features in the people, not to be found among any other nations on the face of the world. Among them, as a white nation, they had made a Constitution, with certain rights secured to the white American people. As to the proposed made at the activation of the permit and the country of the proposed made at the certain rights associated to the white American people. As to the proposed made at the activation of the people, not not be found among any other nations on the face of the world. Among them, as a white nation upon destruction. Depend upon it, the proposed made at the activation and the certain rights and the people. As to the proposed made at the certain rights and the certain rights and the people. As to the proposed made at the certain right tion, and who seem intent upon rushing the nation upon destruction. Depend upon it, there will be a large Republican party in this tion, they had made a Constitution, with certain rights secured to the white American people. As to the negro, he was allowed to live among them, and he was protected under the shade of the law, against continuity and outrage; but the Constitution ieft him without putticatinghet, and in a condition of bondage, till it atough be determined otherwise. That was his condition by nature. History showed that the negro race could not exist, but must die out in a cold or a temperate climate; but in very warn regions the negro will prosper; and retain his perfect strength to labor, but he had not intellect to govern him, nor willingues; but work, japplause] and he was, therefore, silonded a matter to certer that will for the benefit of both himself useful to both bigself and object. Japplause.]

That is plain talk. *Wildon-Serims 22 sentiment. Should the Democrats undertake to dissolve the Union in the event of the election of a Republican President, it will be the signal for the American party to join hands with the Republicans of the North and strike the traitors down. Virginia will not be a unit on the side of the nullifiers in such a crisis. The real sentiments of a majority of her white people are saily misrepresented on the shors of Congress.

THE TITLE TO MOUNT VERNON.—It will be seen by 'he official statement we publish to-day from the Regent of the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association, that the rumor, which ran the rounds of the Press, to the effect that the title given by John A. Washington was a defective one, turns out to be without man to selze it for his life. The sailor caught the rope just as the ship was passing. I immediation. The title is perfect and the purchase money almost made up. But a find is still needed to put and keep Mount Vernom in repair.

The Madison Journal wants to know, what we are going to do about the hissing of Cheever, Phillips and Carits, in New York and Philadelphia. Nothing. It has been decided in the latter city, that people have a right to his such creatures. News of yesterday.

On the contrary, it was "decided?" that they had no such "right" and the "hissers?" were summarily ejected from the meeting

He has gradually declined until the severe blows he received on his head in the destruction of the baggae car of that train, have terminated fatally. have terminated fatally.

This event will help to throw a darker shadow over the startling event which was already sufficiently overcast with clouds.— The calamity which suddonly turned a day ness and cordiality with which young Smead grasped our hand as he spoke to us on the morning of that gola day, standing in the door of the haggage car, where he was, and extended an invitation to us to join him there.

Little did he so much as think that The threshhold of the world unknown," and was at the very portals of the grave, and as little did we anticipate that the next time we should see him, he would be writting beneath the wreck of a grash that was destined to involve his with so many other precious

He wrote with facility and ease, and his paper was among the most prominent and influential in the Northern portion of Wisconsin.—What neight have been a long career of usefulness and success has been unexpectedly here to a close, and was no not hove in brought to a close, and we can only how in reverence to a dispensation which has called away our friend, and made it our melancholy office to pay an inadequate but heart-felt tribute of respect to his memory.

"Tears fell, when thou west dying, From eyes unused to ween, And long, where thou art lying, Will tears the cold turk steep," -Watertown Democrat, Dec. 22.

DECLINE of AGRICULTURE.—But few people are aware of the immense falling off in the staple agricultural products of the older States, as exhibited by the census reports. New England, for instance, in 1840, raised over 2,000,000 bushels of wheat, but in 1850 she yielded but 1,000,000—a decline of fifty report in the press. The propular in 1850 she yielded but 1,000,000—a decline of fitty per cent in ten years. The population in the meantime had considerably increased. There has been a considerably decline, undoubtedly, since 1850. The four States of Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia and Alabama, which raised 12,000,000 bushels of wheat in 1840, raised but 5,000,000 bushels in 1850. The number of sheep in the State of New York had decreased so that there were nearly 3,000,000 less than there were thirty years ago. Within a period of five years the decrease ins been nearly fifty per cent, while the decrease in the number.

five years the decrease has been nearly fifty per cent, while the decrease in the number of horses, cows and swine is above fifteen per cent. In 1845 the product of wheat was 13,391,770 bushels. It has steadily declined since, and the product of the past year did not exceed 6,000,000 bushels.

The older sections of our country are becoming more and more dependentupon the granary of the Northwest for their supplies of the leading agricultural products. Their land is getting worn out and unproductive, and the people are turning their attention to manufactures and commerce. In time scientific agriculture, directed by the resources of wealth, will reclaim, in all its old fertility, those districts; but for the present they must wealth, will reclaim, in all its old fertility, those districts; but for the present they must look elsewhere, in a measure, for the great supplies of the staff of life. The opening of new Territories, soon to become States in the West, is the greatest of blessings to the old Atlantic States, not only as relieving them of considerable population they can well spare, but as assisting to keep down the price of agricultural products to a reasonable figure.

Twas the night before Christmas, when all thro' the Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

The stockings were hung by the chimney with ware, in the hope that St. Nicholas soon wand be there. The children were nested all song in their beds, While visions of sugar plums danced in their heads, and mama in her kerchief, and I in my cap. Had just sottled our brains for a long Winter's map, When out on the lawn there rose such a clatter, I sprang from my had to see what was the matter. Away to the window flow like a fissit, Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash; The moon on the breast of the new-faller, snow, Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below.

When, what to my wondering eyes should appear, Gave the listre of mid-day to objects below. When, what to my windering eyes should appear, But a miniature sleigh, and eight they reinder; With a little old driver so lively and quick. I knew in a moment it must be Saint Nick. More rapid thun eagles his coursers they came, And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name, Now, Dasher I now, Dancer I now, Francer I now, Vix.

And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name, Now, Dasher I now, Dancer I now, Pranser I now, Yrace I now, Ownet I on, Comet! on, Capid! on, Dunder and Blixen!

To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!

Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!

As dry leaves before the hurricane fly
Whon they meet with an obstacle mount to the sky, we will be a supported to the house-top the coursers they flew,
With the sleigh full of tops and Saita Nicholas too.

And then in a twinkling, I heard on the roof,
The prancing and powing of each little hoof,
As I drew in my head and was turning around,
Down the chinner St. Nicholas cane with a bound.
He was dressed all in fur, from his head to Lis feet,
And he looked like a pedier just open ing his pack;
His checks were like roses, his nose like a cherry;
His checks were like roses, his nose like a cherry;
His droll little mouth was drawn up Fixe a bow,
And the beard of his chin was as white as the snow;
The atump of a pipe he held light in his teeth,
And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath;
Ho lind a broad face and a fulle round belly,
That shook when he laughted like a bowl full of july.
He was clubby and plump, a right july old eff,
And I laughed when I saw him in splite of myself.
And lawing of this eye and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread;
He spoke nat a word, but went straight to his work,
And liled all the stackings; then turned with a jork,
And laying his flager aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, up the chinnery he rose;
He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And a read and a flagen and of a thistle;
But I heard him excelameere he drove out of sight,
Merry Christmas to all, and to all a Good Night! Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes

ISAAO BACKUS .- From the 6th volume of

Dr. Spragur's Annal's of the American

It need not be disguised that Mr. Backus partook of the spirit of the Mathers and others, in taking a peculiar interest in what were called "Wonder-working Providences," and tents. He was exhorting to constancy in prayer, and regular seasons of private devotion, notwithstanding all the wiles and opposition of Satan, and in that connection related the following case of his own experience:

ted the following case of his own experience: He retired to his closet at the usual season, and as he made the attempt to pray, Satan presented himself in bodily form, and trowned upon him in grim opposition. He turned to another side of his closet and the same forbidding form still frowned upon him. He turned to the third, and then to the fourth, side, and still he had to encounter that same horrible appearance; "and then," he added, "I said to myself, I will pray, if I have to pray through you; and I did pray through the devil."

THE DYING SAINT.—Dragged from the jungle, pale with loss of blood, wasted to a shadow with famine and hardship, far away from father or mother, or any earthly friend, and surrounded by a cloud of black incarnate fiends, he saw a Mohammedan convert, apnalled at the preparations for his torture.

palled at the preparations for his torture, about to rencunce his Faith. Fast dying, almost beyond the vengeance of his enemies, this good brave boy had a moment more to this good brave boy had a moment more to live, a breath more to spend. Love to Jesus, the ruling passion, was strong in death; and so, as the gates of Heaven were rolling open to receive his ransomed spirit, he raised himself up, and casting an imploring look on that wavering convert, cried, "Oh, deny not your Lord!" A noble death, and a right noble testimony!—Dr. Guthrie's Inheritance of the Saints.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—The following beautiful verse contains a sentiment which many of our readers will recognize in a feeling they have no doubt experienced, but never the many of completely to average.

"O never breathe a lost one's name
When those who loved that name are nigh;
It pours a lara through the frame
That chokes the breast and fills the eye;
It stains a cord that yields too much.
Of piercing anguish in its breath,
And hands of mercy should not touch
A string made cloquent by death;

should be better off if there were more consolence in the community than there is, but now and then there is a person who has too much; and such persons need help just as much as persons who are troubled with doubts which proceed from some other source. This state of mind may lead a man to expect suddenly that which can only come through long growth—that which requires time for its development. Men who have an over-acute consolence are apt to give no head to the necessity of this time element, and to demand of themselves those higher Christian graces which will come by and by, but which never come at an early period in Christian life. They are apt, also, to attach undue importance to little things. They are apt to have a feeling that they must be conscientious in regard to little things in the same way that they are in regard to great things. It is true that we should be conscienced in respect to everything, but it is not true that we should be conscienced in respect to great things.

THIS ENORMOUS QUANTITY OF this invaluable Remedy has been purchased by attizens of the United States during the short time it has been before the public. The reason for this extraordinary success is simply in the actual trut and value of the article. No one buys the MAGNET and value of the article. No one objects the MAUNET, IG PLASTER without becoming its friend. It per form all that is promised, and carries with it its own recommendation. Truly this is a Victory—peace-ful and bloodless—but we believe not less glorious than the triumphs of war, with its truin of carnage (ESTABLISHED 1778.) and desolation.

FRIDAY EVENING, December 23d. PORE AND PROVISION TRADE.

Decised bogs were very firm to-day, but not quotably higher. Receipts were light—only 415 bead—but a considerable business was done in lots that had been held over. There were sales of about 900 head at $5,00% 5.50 for light, and $5,75@6,00 for heavy averages, say 212 to 250 and upwards. The receipts to the present date foot up 40,601, including the estimated receipts by teams. Provisions are also firm, and mess pork, we believe, held at an advance, but no transactions were reported. A sale of 5000 bulk shoulders at 5) to for January delivery is noted.

Jamary delivery is model.

Cincinnati Pork Market, Dec. Mist.—The receipts of host were again light to-day, comprising only about 5 (hos head. The market was consequently firm, but prices were not in higher. Buyers were not numerous, and advanced pretentions indicated early in the day, received no encouragement; for notwithstanding the meagre suppliers, there were a good many loop smooth late in the afternoon. Prices may be quoted at $6,20 to $6,00 for 160 to 200. B., averages, with a st ady, but rather subduced feeling. These remarks, as regards the spirit of the trade, also apply to provisions. Holdiers were firm, and saked advanced rates in most eases, but buggers were caim, and with few exceptions there was no anxiety to invest. About 600 bbls, mers poris, on the spit, soid at $15,50—but there were more tuyers than sellers, at this figure, hough some acked $10, 1502 ft. There were sales for January at $17 and for March at $17,50. Bulk meats brought $10 and $40 for February. A sale of 200 bbls lard at 110. This article is generally held at 10% to, but buyers are not disposed to payover 10c. Green neats are firm at $15, and $74,650 for shoulders sides and hams. Flour is firmer, but not higher.—Gazette.
